1 Plaintiffs Patricia Connor (“Connor”) and Sheri L. Bywater (“Bywater”), collectively
2 referred to as “Plaintiffs” or “Class Representatives”), submit this memorandum in support of 3 their unopposed Motion for Final Approval of Class Action Settlement Agreement. Defendants
4 JPMorgan Chase Bank (hereinafter referred to as “JPMCB”), and Federal National Mortgage 5 Association a/k/a Fannie Mae (hereinafter collectively referred to as “Defendants”) support this 6 motion and will be filing a statement to that effect.

7 I. INTRODUCTION

8 This Settlement is an excellent result which merits final approval. The Settlement 9 provides a substantial Settlement Fund – here the minimum payment of $7,000,000 – to provide 10 statutory damages to persons called on their cell phones without prior consent by JPMCB 11 allegedly in violation of the Telephone Consumer Protection Act (“TCPA”). Every Class Member 12 was informed of and had the opportunity to call a toll free number or to go online to easily file a 13 claim for a pro rata portion of the Fund. But without adequate notice, even that simple claims 14 process would be meaningless, so this Settlement also provides that the Class Members would 15 each receive a direct mail postcard summary notice. That way, each Class Member was informed 16 of the Settlement, was directed to the Settlement Website to learn more about it, and could choose 17 whether to participate. This type of notice is a much more expensive notice than other types of 18 notice, such as publishing information about the Settlement, but it guaranteed almost every Class 19 Member – here over 96% of the Class – received notice. The costs of litigating this action, 20 including Plaintiffs’ attorneys’ fees and the costs of notice and claims administration, are all paid 21 from the Fund, and the remainder divided among the claimants. Thus, the Settlement provides 22 participating Class Members with a monetary payment that none would be able to obtain on their 23 own, due to the economics of individually suing for minimal statutory damages. The Settlement 24 also has the effect of putting an end to conduct alleged to be a violation of the TCPA. Therefore, 25 this is an excellent result and should be given final approval by the Court.

26 On June 16, 2010, Plaintiffs filed this class action lawsuit (hereinafter referred to as the 27 “Lawsuit”) against Defendants. Plaintiffs asserted class claims against Defendants under the 28 Telephone Consumer Protection Act, 47 U.S.C. § 227. Specifically, Plaintiffs alleged that

1 Defendants violated the TCPA by placing telephone calls to their cellular telephones without 2 “prior express consent,” using an “automatic telephone dialing system” and using an “artificial or 3 prerecorded voice.” [Docket No. 1.]

4 In the following months, the Parties participated in an extensive series of arms'-length 5 negotiations. During this process, the Parties were fortunate to have the support and assistance
6 of Magistrate Judge Bernard G. Skomal, who presided over an Early Neutral Evaluation
7 conference and follow-up conferences. [Docket Nos. 25, 26, 28, 30, and 32.] Even though 8 settlement was not reached at the ENE conference and negotiations before the court came to an 9 impasse, the Parties all began propounding and conducting discovery, and they still continued 10 negotiations amongst themselves for several months. Eventually the Parties reached an 11 agreement.

12 The Parties entered into a Class Action Settlement Agreement and Release (hereinafter 13 referred to as the “Agreement”), which was filed on January 17, 2012, along with the Motion for 14 Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement Agreement (hereinafter referred to as 15 “Preliminary Approval Motion”). [Docket No. 50.] All capitalized terms used herein have the 16 meanings defined herein and/or in the Agreement.

17 On March 12, 2012, based upon the Agreement, the Preliminary Approval Motion, and the 18 record, the Court entered an Order of Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement 19 (hereinafter referred to as the “Preliminary Approval Order”). [Docket No. 55.] Pursuant to the 20 Preliminary Approval Order, the Court, among other things: (i) preliminarily certified (for 21 settlement purposes only) a class of plaintiffs (hereinafter referred to as the “Class Members”) 22 with respect to the claims asserted in the Lawsuit; (ii) preliminarily approved the proposed 23 settlement; (iii) appointed Plaintiffs Patricia Connor and Sheri L. Bywater as the Class
24 Representatives; (iv) appointed Hyde & Swigart, Kazerouni Law Group, APC, the Law Offices
25 of Douglas J. Campion, Lieff Cabraser Heimann & Bernstein, LLP, and David P. Meyer & 26 Associates Co., LLP (now “Meyer Wilson”) as Class Counsel; and (v) set the date and time of the 27 Final Approval Hearing (hereinafter referred to as the “Fairness Hearing”) for August 3, 2012, at 28 1:30 P.M. [Docket No. 55.]

HYDE & SWIGART
San Diego, California

1 As required by the Preliminary Approval Order, the Parties engaged a third party class
2 action administrator, Gilardi & Co, LLC, (hereinafter referred to as “Gilardi” or “Claims
3 Administrator”), to assist in administration of the class action settlement process. See Declaration
4 of Tricia M. Solorzano in Support of Motion for Final Approval of Class Action Settlement
5 (“Solorzano Decl.”), ¶ 3, filed herewith. As detailed below, Gilardi disseminated the summary
6 and full notices which advised Class Members that, in order to receive a portion of the settlement 7 funds, they needed to either call Gilardi’s toll-free number, submit a claim online, or mail in a 8 claim form no later than July 10, 2012. The summary and full notices also advised Class 9 Members that the deadline to exclude themselves from the settlement was June 10, 2012 and the 10 deadline to object to the settlement was July 20, 2012. Solorzano Decl., ¶¶ 14, 21, Exs. B, C.

11 Gilardi was also engaged to receive and process all claims and requests for exclusion
12 (“opt outs”). Only 209 opt-outs were received out of the 1,381,406 direct mail notices sent out, 13 not including the 13 rejected opt-outs as filed late. Solorzano Decl., ¶¶ 19-20.

14 Objections were to be filed with the Court, with copies to counsel for both sides.
15 Preliminary Approval Order at pp. 5-6, ¶¶ 9-11. No objections have been filed with the Court to 16 date, but the deadline for objecting and filing objections is July 20, 2012, the date this brief is 17 expected to be filed. In total, 55,872 valid claims have to date been filed with Gilardi, including 9 18 late filed claims that the Parties agree can be included. Solorzano Decl., ¶ 15. There are currently 19 59 unresolved claims that are pending, which may result in additional valid claims. Id. at ¶¶ 20 16-17. Based upon the 55,872 number of existing claims, and assuming the requested fees and 21 costs are awarded, that would allow for each claimant to receive approximately $69.97 from the 22 balance of the $7,000,000 minimum payment to be paid by Defendant.

23 Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e), the Parties now seek final certification and approval of 24 the proposed class action settlement. Specifically, the Parties request the Court enter a Final 25 Order and Judgment similar to the proposed Order submitted with this motion.

1 II. FACTS AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

2 A. CLASS ALLEGATIONS

3 As noted, on June 16, 2010, Plaintiffs filed this class action under the TCPA against 4 Defendants. [Docket No. 1.] Specifically, Plaintiffs alleged that Defendants violated the TCPA 5 by making telephone calls to their cellular telephones without “prior express consent,” using an 6 “automatic telephone dialing system” and using an “artificial or prerecorded voice.” On behalf of 7 themselves and others similarly situated, Plaintiffs asserted two TCPA claims against Defendants.

8 First, Plaintiffs alleged that Defendants committed negligent violations of the TCPA. For 9 this first claim, on behalf of themselves and the putative class, Plaintiffs sought $500 per violation
 10 and injunctive relief under 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(3)(B). Second, Plaintiffs alleged that Defendants 11 committed knowing and/or willful violations of the TCPA. For this second claim, Plaintiffs 12 sought for themselves and the putative class $1,500 per violation and injunctive relief under 47 13 U.S.C. § 227(b)(3)(B) and § 227(b)(3)(C). Defendants filed an Answer and deny that they 14 violated the TCPA in any regard.

15 B. SETTLEMENT

16 In an earnest attempt to settle the Lawsuit and avoid the risks inherent in proceeding to 17 trial, the Parties discussed settlement on numerous occasions. The Parties met for an Early 18 Neutral Evaluation conference before Magistrate Judge Bernard G. Skomal. Counsel for the 19 Parties also exchanged various offers and counteroffers through in-person meetings, telephone 20 conferences, a multitude of e-mails, and no less than three telephonic Settlement Disposition 21 Conferences. Happily, the efforts of Counsel to reach a compromise in the form of a proposed 22 class settlement proved fruitful; approximately nineteen months after the case was initially filed, 23 the Parties were able to reach an understanding, the terms of which are memorialized in the 24 Agreement.

25 C. CAFA NOTICES

26 JPMCB has an obligation under the Class Action Fairness Act (“CAFA”) to notify the 27 Office of the Comptroller of the Currency under 28 U.S.C. § 1715(a)(1)(B) instead of providing 28 written notice of the proposed class settlement on the U.S. attorney general and the attorney

1 generals of each state. JPMCB's counsel has agreed to provide to the Court a declaration 2 verifying that has been done.

3 D. REQUEST FOR ENTRY OF PRELIMINARY APPROVAL ORDER

4 On January 17, 2012, the Plaintiffs filed an unopposed Motion for Preliminary Approval 5 of Class Action Settlement. [Docket No. 50.] On March 12, 2012, the Court entered the 6 Preliminary Approval Order, preliminarily certifying the proposed class and preliminarily
7 approving the proposed class settlement. [Docket No. 55.]

8 E. FAIRNESS HEARING

9 Per the Preliminary Approval Order, the Court set the Fairness Hearing for August 3, 10 2012, 1:30 p.m., at the United States District Court for the Southern District of California, located 11 at 940 Front Street, San Diego, California, 92101. [Docket No. 55.]

12 F. ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS APPLICATION

13 At the Fairness Hearing, the Court will also consider Class Counsel's previously filed 14 Motion for Attorney's Fees and Costs and Service Award to Named Plaintiff ("Fees Brief"), 15 [Docket No. 60.] The Parties request that the Court enter an Order similar to the Final Approval 16 Order submitted with this motion, which also includes a provision for such requested attorneys' 17 fees and costs.

18 G. PROPOSED CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT TERMS

19 The significant terms of the proposed settlement are the following:

20 1. CERTIFICATION OF A FED.R.CIV.P. 23(B)(2) AND (B)(3) SETTLEMENT CLASS

21 The Preliminary Approval Order confirmed the following persons are in the Settlement 22 Class:

23 "All present or former borrowers or co-borrowers as identified in 24 JPMCB's records whose residential mortgage loan or home equity line of 25 credit is or was serviced by JPMCB or Chase Home Finance LLC and 26 either the borrower, co-borrower or both, were contacted on their cellular 27 telephone(s) by JPMCB through the use of an automated dialer system 28 and/or an artificial or pre-recorded voice during the Class Period.
Subclass A of the Settlement Class consists of those persons whose cell phones were actually called by JPMCB or Chase Home Finance LLC during the Class Period, and are thus entitled to a monetary payment.

Excluded from the Settlement Class are Defendants, their parent companies, affiliates or subsidiaries, or any employees thereof, and any entities in which any of such companies has a controlling interest, the Judge or Magistrate Judge to whom the Action is assigned and any member of those Judges' staffs and immediate families, as well as all persons who validly request exclusion from the Settlement Class.”

Preliminary Approval Order, p. 2-3, ¶ 2.

2. SETTLEMENT BENEFITS

The Settlement requires payment of a minimum of $7,000,000 and a maximum of $9,000,000, dependent upon the number of claims filed. It appears the number of claims filed (55,872) will not cause the minimum Settlement amount of $7,000,000 to be exceeded, as discussed below. Declaration of Douglas J. Campion in Support of Final Approval of Class Action Settlement (“Campion Decl.”), ¶ 9. The members of Subclass A, i.e., those that were actually called on their cell phones by JPMCB, will receive a monetary payment. The other members of the Class consist of those co-borrowers on the same accounts that were not actually called on their cell phones to date but were included in the Class because JPMCB’s records did not separate out which of the borrowers owned the cell phones called. Id. at ¶ 16. Those persons not in Subclass A and not called could not file a claim for a monetary payment but will also benefit from the Settlement. That is because JPMCB admittedly put in place as a result of this action newly implemented procedures designed to prohibit the calling of a cell phone unless the Settlement Class Member’s mortgage loan servicing record is systematically coded to reflect the borrower’s prior express consent to receive calls on his or her cell phone. Agreement, §§ 5.03, 5.04.

H. THE NOTICE PROVISIONS HAVE BEEN FOLLOWED

1. DIRECT MAIL NOTICE PROVIDED

Gilardi complied with the notice procedure set forth in the Preliminary Approval Order, p. 4, ¶ 6. As required by the Preliminary Approval Order, Gilardi mailed individual postcard notices by direct mail to the Settlement Class members that included a summary of the Settlement's terms, instructions for making a claim, and information regarding a website address www.ConnorTCPAsettlement.com (hereinafter referred to as the "Settlement Website") and the

1 Claims Administrator's toll-free telephone number to both receive calls regarding the Settlement 2 and to file claims. Solorzano Decl., ¶¶ 5-11.

3 After removing duplicate names and addresses, and otherwise cleaning up the original 4 Class List of 1,718,866 Class Members, Gilardi mailed the summary notice of the proposed class 5 settlement to the 1,381,406 persons on the final mailing list. Solorzano Decl., ¶¶ 6,7. Also, 6 Gilardi received returned mail from the U.S. Postal Service for 194,362 persons. Id. at ¶ 13.
 7 After searching for new addresses for those persons, Gilardi subsequently mailed out summary
 8 notice to 143,838 of those persons. Id. Thus, 1,330,082 -- over 96% -- of the Class Members 9 received direct mail notice of the Settlement.

10 2. THE NOTICE WAS POSTED ON THE SETTLEMENT WEBSITE

11 In compliance with the Preliminary Approval Order, Gilardi also posted on the Settlement 12 Website the detailed and full notice in a question and answer format explaining the case, the 13 proposed settlement, and each Class Member's options, in the form attached to the Solorzano 14 Decl. as Ex. A. That website also contains the Settlement Agreement, the Preliminary Approval
 15 Order, the direct mail notice. It also contains the Fees Brief and supporting documents. Campion 16 Decl., ¶ 14.

17 3. CLAIMS PROCEDURE AND CLAIMS FILED

18 The Class Members were provided no less than 90 days to make a claim for a settlement check, 19 submit an exclusion, or file an objection. The procedure was made as easy as possible – no claim form 20 was necessary unless someone wanted to use regular U.S. Mail to submit a claim form downloaded from 21 the Settlement Website. Campion Decl., ¶ 16. All that was required to file a claim was a call to a toll-free 22 number or an on-line submission to determine if the claimant's cell phone number was called and if so, a 23 claim was then filed. The deadline to submit a claim was July 10, 2012. Solorzano Decl., ¶ 14. In total, 24 55,872 valid claims were filed (including 9 late claims which both sides agree can be paid, as they 25 included circumstances such as a firefighter tied up on fire-fighting duty prior to the deadline). All of 26 these claims were validated by Gilardi. Id. 1,044 of the claims attempted were not permitted because their 27 cell phone numbers were not in Subclass A, i.e., they were not on the list of cell phone numbers called by 28 JPMCB. Id. at ¶ 15. 6,782 claims were denied because another claim had been previously filed for the

1 same cell phone number. Id. There were also 742 duplicate claims that were denied. Id. In addition, there 2 are 59 unresolved claims, timely filed but to whom deficiency letters were sent asking for additional 3 curing information. Id., ¶¶ 16, 17. Based upon the present number of claims in the amount of 55,872, 4 each claimant will receive approximately $69.97 if the Court awards the Settlement Costs as requested, as 5 discussed below. Gilardi will be distributing the settlement checks with payment made on a pro rata basis 6 after final approval, and after the final numbers relating to Settlement Costs awarded and valid claims are 7 known. Id. at ¶ 18.

8 4. EXCLUSIONS

9 Gilardi was also engaged to receive and process all claims and requests for exclusion
 10 (“opt outs”). The Preliminary Approval Order required the Class Members to send their written 11 requests for exclusion to Gilardi 90 days from the entry of the Preliminary Approval Order, by 12 June 10, 2012. A relatively small percentage of requests for exclusion were received, 145 timely, 13 and 13 late, out of 1,381,406 Class Members who received notice. There were also an additional 14 64 opt-out requests in several blanket requests for exclusion submitted by five different 15 Bankruptcy Trustees.¹ The timely opt-outs thus total 209. Solorzano Decl., ¶¶ 19-20.

16 5. OBJECTIONS

17 The deadline for filing an objection to the Settlement is July 20, 2012, ten days after the 18 end of the claims period. Preliminary Approval Order, p. 6, ¶ 11.a. - b. The Preliminary 19 Approval Order requires any objections to be filed with the Court and also served on counsel by 20 that date. “Any Class Member who fails to comply with these provision shall waive and forfeit 21 any and all rights the Class Member may have to appear separately and/or to object, and shall be 22 bound by all the terms of this Stipulation of Settlement and the Settlement, and by all the 23 proceedings, orders, and judgments in the Litigation.” Id at (c). No objections have been filed 24 with the Court to date, but the deadline for objecting and filing objections hasn’t passed yet, and 25 is the date this brief is expected to be filed. Thus, there are no valid objections to the Settlement.

27 ¹ Two of those trustees, V. John Brook and Angela W. Esposito, filed with the Court documents entitled “Notice of 28 Opt-Out from Class Settlement”, Docket Nos. 58 and 59, respectively. In addition, those two and three additional trustees sent a package of exclusion requests to the Claims Administrator naming the 52 persons / bankruptcy estates requested to be excluded, who will be submitting them to the Court. See Solorzano Decl. ¶ 20; Ex. E.

1 However, six letters purporting to “object” to the settlement were received by the Claims 2 Administrator, who has attached them to her declaration. Solorzano Decl., ¶ 21, Ex. F. None of 3 those “objections” set forth any reasons for objecting to the settlement, other than one Class 4 Member complaining about the conduct of Defendant harassing the Class Member surrounding a 5 foreclosure. Thus, there are no valid objections to the Settlement.

6 6. SETTLEMENT CHECKS

7 The Settlement Fund in the Agreement was to consist of a minimum of $7,000,000 and a 8 maximum of $9,000,000. Based upon the number of claims submitted, it appears the minimum 9 payment of $7,000,000 will not be exceeded. Per the Agreement, the amounts remaining after 10 Settlement Costs are deducted, including attorneys’ fees and costs, costs of notice and claims 11 administration, and after any incentive payments awarded by the Court are also deducted, the 12 amount remaining will be divided on a sliding scale between $25.00 and $500.00, but on a pro
13 rata basis among the valid claims. If the requested Settlement Costs are awarded, including 14 $2,250,000 in attorneys’ fees, costs in the amount of $835,616.97, including the $811,738.39 15 incurred for costs of notice and claims administration, and the requested incentive payments of 16 $5,000, totaling $3,090,616.97, the amount remaining for paying claims will be approximately 17 $3,909,383.03. Therefore, based upon 55,872 claims, each claimant will receive a settlement 18 check in the amount of approximately $69.97. Campion Decl., ¶ 17.

19 7. CLASS REPRESENTATIVE PAYMENT

20 Pursuant to the Agreement, § 6.01, and subject to Court approval, Defendants agree each 21 Plaintiff may be paid from the Fund an incentive award of $2,500, totaling $5,000, in recognition 22 of their service as the Class Representatives. Class Counsel has previously submitted briefing on 23 that issue in Plaintiffs’ Fees Brief. Docket No. 60.

24 8. CLASS COUNSEL’S ATTORNEYS’ FEES, COSTS, AND EXPENSES

25 Notwithstanding the Agreement provision that permits Class Counsel to file an application 26 for attorneys’ fees, costs, and expenses in an amount not to exceed one-third (1/3) of the common 27 fund (¶19.01), Class Counsel is seeking less than that amount, only 25% of the maximum 28 $9,000,000 common fund in attorneys’ fees, or $2,250,000.00, and $835,616.97 as costs of

1 litigation, including $811,738.39 for costs of notice and claims administration. Campion Decl. ¶
 2 9.c.; Ex. 1 (invoice). See Class Counsel's previously filed Fees Brief, Docket No. 60. The Parties 3 and their counsel further represent and agree that allowance or disallowance by the Court of the 4 agreed-upon amount of $3,085,616.97 in attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses may be considered 5 by the Court separately from the Court's consideration of the fairness, reasonableness, and 6 adequacy of the settlement, and any order or proceedings relating to the fees, costs, and/or 7 expenses owed Class Counsel, or any appeal from any order relating thereto, or reversal, or 8 modification thereof, shall not operate to terminate or cancel the Agreement, or affect or delay the 9 finality of the proposed Final Approval Order approving the Agreement and the settlement of the 10 Lawsuit. (As set forth above, with the two $2,500 incentive payments added to the amount to be 11 deducted from the Settlement Fund in order to determine the remainder for claims, the total is 12 $3,090,616.97, leaving approximately $3,909,383.03 for claims.) Campion Decl. ¶ 9.

13 III. ARGUMENT

14 The Rule 23(a) and (b) factors were previously analyzed and applied by the Parties in their 15 Motion for Preliminary Approval. See Docket No. 50. As the Court ruled in its Preliminary 16 Approval Order, this case satisfies the Rule 23 requirements. See Docket No. 55.

17 A. THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT IS FUNDAMENTALLY FAIR, REASONABLE, AND 18 ADEQUATE

19 “Unlike the settlement of most private civil actions, class actions may be settled only with 20 the approval of the district court.” Officers for Justice v. Civil Service Com'n of City and County of San Francisco, 688 F.2d 615, 623 (9th Cir. 1982). “The court may approve a settlement . . . that 21 would bind class members only after a hearing and on finding that the settlement . . . is fair, 22 reasonable, and adequate.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(1)(C). The Court has broad discretion to grant 23 such approval and should do so where the proposed settlement is “fair, adequate, reasonable, and 24 not a product of collusion.” Hanlon v. Chrysler Corp., 150 F.3d 1011, 1026 (9th Cir. 1998). “To 25 determine whether a settlement agreement meets these standards, a district court must consider a 26 number of factors, including: ‘the strength of plaintiffs’ case; the risk, expense, complexity, and 27 likely duration of further litigation; the risk of maintaining class action status throughout the trial;

1 the amount offered in settlement; the extent of discovery completed, and the stage of the 2 proceedings; the experience and views of counsel; the presence of a governmental participant;
 3 and the reaction of the class members to the proposed settlement.”” Staton v. Boeing Co., 327 F.3d 4 938, 959 (9th Cir. 2003). “The relative degree of importance to be attached to any particular 5 factor will depend upon and be dictated by the nature of the claim(s) advanced, the type(s) of 6 relief sought, and the unique facts and circumstances presented by each individual case.” Officers 7 for Justice, 688 F.2d at 625. To determine whether the proposed settlement is fair, reasonable and 8 adequate, the Court must balance against the continuing risks of litigation and the immediacy and 9 certainty of a substantial recovery. See Girsh v. Jepson, 521 F.2d 153, 157 (3d Cir. 1975); In re
 10 Warner Communications Sec. Litig., 618 F. Supp. 735, 741 (S.D. N.Y. 1985).

11 The Ninth Circuit has long supported settlements reached by capable opponents in arms’ length 12 negotiations. In Rodriguez v. West Publishing Corp., 563 F.3d 948 (9th Cir. 2009), the Ninth Circuit 13 expressed the opinion that courts should defer to the “private consensual decision of the [settling] parties.”
 14 Id. at 965, citing Hanlon, supra, 150 F.3d at 1027 (9th Cir. 1998).

15 The district court must exercise “sound discretion” in approving a settlement. See Torrisi 16 v. Tucson Elec. Power Co., 8 F.3d 1370, 1375 (9th Cir. 1993); Ellis v. Naval Air Rework Facility, 17 87 F.R.D. 15, 18 (N.D. Cal. 1980), aff’d 661 F.2d 939 (9th Cir. 1981). However, “where, as here, 18 a proposed class settlement has been reached after meaningful discovery, after arm’s length 19 negotiation conducted by capable counsel, it is presumptively fair.” M. Berenson Co. v. Faneuil 20 Hall Marketplace, Inc., 671 F. Supp. 819, 822 (D. Mass. 1987).

21 Application of the relevant factors here confirms that the proposed settlement should be 22 finally approved.

23 B. THE STRENGTH OF THE LAWSUIT AND THE RISK, EXPENSE, COMPLEXITY, AND 24 LIKELY DURATION OF FURTHER LITIGATION

25 Defendants have raised numerous defenses to the class claims. Many of these defenses 26 are set forth at length in Defendant’s Answer, which was filed with the Court. See Docket No. 23.
 27 Defendants aver that its defenses have merit and would defeat the claims of the putative class.
 28 However, settlement eliminates any further risk and expense for the Parties. Considering the

1 potential risks and expenses associated with continued prosecution of the Lawsuit, the probability 2 of appeals, the certainty of delay, and the ultimate uncertainty of recovery through continued 3 litigation, the proposed settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate. As the Ninth Circuit has 4 made clear, the very essence of a settlement agreement is compromise, “a yielding of absolutes 5 and an abandoning of highest hopes.” Officers for Justice, 688 F.2d at 624. “Naturally, the 6 agreement reached normally embodies a compromise; in exchange for the saving of cost and 7 elimination of risk, the parties each give up something they might have won had they proceeded 8 with litigation” Id.

9 While Class Counsel believe strongly in the merits of their claims brought on behalf of the 10 class, they also recognize that any case encompasses risks and that settlements of contested cases 11 are preferred in this circuit. Moreover, even if Plaintiffs were to prevail at trial, risks to the class 12 remain. See West Virginia v. Chas. Pfizer & Co., 314 F. Supp. 710, 743-44 (S.D. N.Y. 1970) (“[i]t 13 is known from past experience that no matter how confident one may be of the outcome of 14 litigation, such confidence is often misplaced”), aff’d, 440 F.2d 1079 (2d Cir. 1971); Berkey 15 Photo, Inc. v. Eastman Kodak Co., 603 F.2d 263 (2d Cir. 1979) (reversing $87 million judgment 16 after trial).

17 C. THE AMOUNT OFFERED IN SETTLEMENT

18 The Agreement requires Defendants to establish a settlement fund ranging from a 19 minimum of $7,000,000 to a maximum of $9,000,000, from which Class Members have the right 20 to make a claim to receive a settlement check. If the requested amounts are awarded for 21 attorneys’ fees, costs, and notice and claims costs, and an incentive payment are awarded, that 22 leaves $69.97 for each of the 55,872 claimants. Campion Decl. ¶ 17. That is a settlement check in 23 an amount equal to or greater than obtained in many other TCPA settlements, and warrants final 24 approval.²

25 _____
 26 ² Bellows v. NCO Financial Systems, Inc., 07-CV-01413 W(AJB)(S.D. Cal.)($70 per claimant awarded); *Lemieux v.
 27 Global Credit & Collection Corp.*, 08-CV-1012 IEG(POR)(S.D. Cal.)($70 per claimant awarded); *Adams v.
 28 AllianceOne Receivables Management, Inc.*, 08-CV-0248 JAH(WVG)(S.D. Cal)(Class members to receive a maximum of $40 per claim. Action preliminarily approved, pending final approval); Arthur v. Sallie Mae, Inc., C10-0198 JLR(W.D. Wash)(Class members are to receive between $20 and $40 dollars per claim. Action preliminarily approved, pending final approval).

1 Here there were a total of no more than 1,181,441 persons in Subclass A that were actually 2 called on their cell phones and entitled to file claims. Campion Decl., ¶ 17.³ Here the fact that 3 there were only a little less than 5% -- .04729 %⁴ -- of the eligible claimants filing claims should 4 not deter the Court from approving the settlement. This is a consumer case and consequently 5 subject to lower claims rates than other types of cases. Class Counsel used direct mail notice to 6 ensure every potential Class Member was notified (over 96% received that notice). Campion 7 Decl., ¶ 14. Furthermore, there could not be an easier claims process for any claimant to file a 8 claim by allowing the filing through a toll-free telephone call or submitting a claim online. No 9 claim form was required, no declaration under penalty of perjury was required, only a 10 confirmation of the class member's name and address on the notice. Campion Decl., ¶ 16. Thus, 11 the fact that the number of claims actually filed was less than hoped for does not affect the 12 underlying fairness of the settlement. As the court held in Beecher v. Able, 441 F. Supp. 426, 429 13 (S.D. N.Y. 1977), where a much smaller number of claims was made in a class action than 14 expected, “[i]n such circumstances, the settlement agreement should not lightly be set aside 15 merely because subsequent developments have indicated that the bargain is more beneficial to 16 one side than to the other.” In that case, the defendant urged the court to set aside the non-17 reversionary settlement agreement because the total settlement amounts would be paid not back to 18 defendant but to a much smaller group of claimants than the parties expected. The court refused 19 to set aside the agreement, especially since the parties had built contingencies into the agreement 20 in the event of high or low number of claims, as was done in the present case, and thus any 21 mistakes were only a matter of degree, not to the heart of the matter. Id. at 430.

22 Here, there is a minimum payment of $7,000,000 by the Defendants. Regardless of the 23 number of claims, either potential or submitted, the Defendants are required to pay at least the 24 entire minimum amount of $7,000,000 into the common fund. In the context of the facts 25

26 ³ There may have been less than that number because when the mailing list for the entire Class was cleaned up and 27 duplicate names eliminated, that number of Class Members dropped from 1,718,866 to 1,381,406, a reduction of 337,316 duplicate records.. Solorzano Decl., ¶¶ 6,7. No such analysis was done for the Subclass A list. Campion
 Decl. ¶ 17.

28 ⁴ That percentage is actually .0472914009248028, slightly under 5%.

1 surrounding this Lawsuit, such an amount represents a significant sum of money. This payment is 2 likely to discourage any future behavior that could potentially violate the TCPA; in fact, it will 3 encourage compliance with the law.

4 Ultimately, the common fund established by the Agreement here will serve both intended 5 purposes of compensating the Class Members for their injuries and deterring future wrongful 6 conduct. Thus, the amount offered in settlement should be approved by the Court as fair and 7 reasonable.

8 D. THE EXTENT OF DISCOVERY COMPLETED

9 Since this case settled not long after the Early Neutral Evaluation Conference, Class 10 Counsel conducted both formal and informal discovery as well as confirmatory discovery. The 11 important information needed in these cases is how many cell phones were called during the 12 Class Period and to whom were the calls made. This information was obtained through informal 13 and confirmatory discovery and the numbers confirmed by and through Class Counsel's 14 information technology consultant. See the prior Campion Declaration, ¶ 7 and Hansen 15 Declaration, ¶¶ 4-5, both filed with the Preliminary Approval Motion. Thus, the litigation had 16 reached the stage where "the parties certainly have a clear view of the strengths and weaknesses 17 of their cases." Warner Communications, 618 F.Supp. at 745. Further, considering that the 18 disputed issues between the Parties are legal, and not factual, in nature, the Parties have 19 exchanged sufficient information to make an informed decision about settlement. See Linney v.
 20 Cellular Alaska Partnership, 151 F.3d 1234, 1239 (9th Cir. 1998).

21 E. THE EXPERIENCE AND VIEWS OF CLASS COUNSEL

22 Moreover, "[t]he recommendations of plaintiffs' counsel should be given a presumption of 23 reasonableness." Boyd v. Bechtel Corp., 485 F. Supp. 610, 622 (N.D. Cal. 1979). The 24 presumption of reasonableness in this action is fully warranted because the settlement is the 25 product of arm's length negotiations conducted by capable, experienced counsel. See M.
 26 Berenson Co., 671 F.Supp. at 822; Ellis, 87 F.R.D. at 18 ("the fact that experienced counsel 27 involved in the case approved the settlement after hard-fought negotiations is entitled to 28 considerable weight"); 2 Newberg on Class Actions § 11.24 (4th Ed. & Supp. 2002); Manual for

1 Complex Litigation, Fourth § 30.42.

2 Here, it is the considered judgment of experienced counsel that this settlement is a fair, 3 reasonable and adequate settlement of the litigation. As set forth in the declarations attached to 4 the Motion for Preliminary Approval and in support of their Fees Brief, Class Counsel are 5 experienced consumer class action lawyers. [See Docket Nos. 50 & 60.] This settlement was 6 negotiated at arms'-length by experienced and capable Class Counsel who now recommend its 7 approval. Given their experience and expertise, Class Counsel are well-qualified to not only 8 assess the prospects of a case, but also to negotiate a favorable resolution for the class. Class 9 Counsel have achieved such a result here, and unequivocally assert that the proposed settlement 10 should receive final approval. Campion Decl., ¶¶ 11, 20; Declaration of Joshua B. Swigart in 11 Support of Motion for Final Approval of Class Action Settlement (“Swigart Decl.”) ¶¶ 10-14;
 12 Declaration of Abbas Kazerounian in Support of Motion for Final Approval of Class Action 13 Settlement, ¶¶ 10-14; Declaration of Jonathan D. Selbin in Support of Plaintiff’s Motion for Final 14 Approval of Class Action Settlement, ¶ 10 (filed on June 20, 2012 with Fees and Costs motion, 15 Docket No. 60, Ex. No. 29).

16 F. THE REACTION OF THE CLASS MEMBERS TO THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT

17 The absence of any objection, at least to the date of filing this brief, by a Class Member is 18 an important factor in evaluating the fairness, reasonableness and adequacy of the settlement and 19 supports approval of the settlement. See Detroit v. Grinnell Corp., 495 F.2d 448, 463 (2d Cir.
 20 1974); Warner Communications, 618 F. Supp. at 746. In fact, the lack of objections may well
 21 evidence the fairness of the settlement. See In re PaineWebber Ltd. Litig., 171 F.R.D. 104, 126 22 (S.D. N.Y.), aff’d, 117 F.3d 721 (2d Cir. 1997). Here, there has been no resistance to the 23 proposed settlement, and 55,872 Class Members have filed claims. No Class Members have filed 24 any objections. It is also worth noting that only 209 Class Members timely requested exclusion 25 from the class, out of 1,381,406 notices, a minuscule amount. Solorzano Decl., ¶¶ 19, 20.
 26 Furthermore, the absence of objections from Class Members reinforces the notion that the 27 proposed settlement is worthy of approval. Both Class Representatives support this motion. See 28 Declaration of Patricia Connor in Support of Final Approval of Class Action Settlement, ¶ 2, filed

1 herewith, and the Declaration of Sheri L. Bywater in Support of the Final Approval of Class
2 Action Settlement, ¶ 2, filed in support of Fees and Costs motion, on June 20, 2012, Docket No., 3 60, Exhibit No. 29.

4 IV. CONCLUSION

5 The Parties have reached this Settlement following extensive arms' length negotiations.
6 The Settlement is fair and reasonable. For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiffs respectfully request 7 that the Court:

- 8 1. Grant approval of the proposed settlement;
- 9 2. Order payment from the settlement proceeds to the Claims Administrator in 10 compliance with the Court's Preliminary Approval Order and the Agreement;
- 11 3. Grant the motion for fees and costs scheduled to be heard the same date as this 12 motion;
- 13 4. Enter the proposed Final Approval Order submitted herewith; and
- 14 5. Retain continuing jurisdiction over the implementation, interpretation, administration 15 and consummation of the Settlement.

16 Respectfully submitted,
